This Event Is For You If You Are:

- An older adult living with diabetes in a rural community.
- A care partner/family supporting someone with diabetes.
- A health care provider or policy professional serving *rural areas.

All voices matter.

This event is a friendly, free gathering for people across rural Canada to come together & talk about real-life experiences with diabetes.

We will start with a short talk about what we have learned in a recent study, then break into small group chats to share thoughts & ideas.

No specific knowledge or training is needed.
